

CLUB MINISTRIES FAIR DESCRIPTION

Description

This year for Club Fair and Fun Day we are doing a New Thing. In the past we have had separate events with many of our family and friends coming out to support our Pathfinders and Adventurers. As we sense God leading in this new season, the valuable lesson we've learned during the pandemic was collaboration fosters a spirit of Unity. By joining forces to host one event we see the importance of teaching our clubs on how to support and work together as one.

Club Fair 2022 is a joint celebration of both Pathfinder and Adventurer Clubs for the many years of hard work and service within our churches and communities. Come and join us for an entire day of family fun, food, and fellowship. It won't be the same without YOU there.

Theme: "A New Thing"

Taken from Isaiah 43:18-19, this theme speaks to the amazing things God is ready to do in your life as you step into the future. The world is still struggling with the worst global crises of our time, yet we will choose to be optimistic and focused on the God that is ready to do great things in the world through you!

Uniforms

Parade: Class A Uniform, Class C when Class A is not available

After Parade: Class C Uniform

Attendance

This event is open to all registered Pathfinder and Adventurer clubs of Southeastern California Conference. Parents, friends, pastors and church members are encouraged to attend.

Registration

Clubs must be registered with SECC Youth Ministries Department. The club director or secretary must complete the online registration form if they wish to participate in the activities. Registration deadline is Sunday, May 1. Provide tentative numbers and booth needs. Once you arrive, you will need to come to the onsite registration to confirm numbers, order of parade lineup, receive booth assignments, and register your time slot for drill team(s), if applicable.

Registration Onsite

Onsite registration deposit(s) of $50 per booth paid by cash or check is required before clubs will be given their assigned space for booth(s). The club director or staff may register onsite at the registration headquarters located in the Conference Assembly Room at the back of the building.

Drill Teams

Registered club of SECC California Conference may enter any type of drill team(s), basic or fancy.

- Basic - simple commands and maneuvers
- Fancy - special, intricate maneuvers along with basic commands

For this year, we are only having drill team exhibitions, no judging. Be sure to pre-register your team for this event at the same time you register your club. Each club has the opportunity to participate.

Requirements are:

1. Confirm your drill team when you register your club onsite at the Fair by 8:00am on Sunday.
2. Write your church/club drill team name on the time slot.
 - First team to register will drill first
 - Second team to register will drill second, etc.
3. Must have at least 6 members in the team. (Exception - club with less than 10 members)
4. Must be in dress, Class A, appropriate uniform. (Exception - . New club that has not been in operation in the last 2 years.) May mix Pathfinders with teen leaders.
5. Demonstration to be no longer than 3 minutes.

Flags

The US Flag code states the American Flag is to be given the place of honor which is always to the right side of any speaker, stage, sanctuary, other flags, etc. Some prefer to simply say, "The American Flag is always on the right of whatever it is displayed with." If you have any questions about flag placement, visit the Betsy Ross website. Check out these diagrams.

First Aid Station

Located off the garden area at the Stage Area. Look for the First Aid sign. A medical person will be available to care for minor medical issues. For medical emergencies go to the First Aid Station, the stage, or contact a coordinator so the medical person is radioed to assist or call 9-1-1.

Location

The main location of the event is held on grounds of La Sierra University located in Riverside. The university buildings will be closed and restrooms will not be available. Portable toilets are located in to the side of the Dining Commons to the right of the Stage Area.

Overnight Camping

Arrangements can be made for camping on Saturday night on the Club Ministries Fair online registration. Portable toilets and water will be available onsite. Tent camping is available on the grassy area located between the conference parking lots and Worthington Foods. Tents must be removed early Sunday morning before the parade. Those requesting to bring an RV will be notified where to park in the conference parking lot.

Parade

The parade route will begin at La Sierra University business building and head out the onto Heritage Way. The parade will continue in on the road in front of the waterfall and turn right before the barricades where clubs will directed where to lineup in the assembly area. The parade will begin at 8:45 am.

- Marchers - Clubs members and staff are required to be in full dress uniform, Class A, to participate in the parade. Each club must be lined up and ready to march by 8:30 am. The staging area will be on Heritage Way inbetween the Administration and Business building.
- Marching in the Parade - Attention to the following detail will help make your club look great!
 1. Keep a distance of 50 feet between your club and the club in front of you.
 2. All lines and files straight, uniforms complete and looking sharp, eyes straight ahead.
 3. All club members and staff in step.
 4. Sharp column movements at corners
 5. Correct reviewing stand procedure, EYES RIGHT, as described below:

This movement is used at parades when the club is marching past the reviewing stand. It is executed when the director, without turning his/her body, commands EYES RIGHT. The command is given when the director is six steps from the front of the reviewing stand.

When the command RIGHT is given, each Pathfinder ,except the right flank, turns head and eyes to the right at an angle of 45-degrees until the command FRONT is given. At the command EYES RIGHT the director turns his/her head and eyes right and renders PRESENT ARMS. The guidon bearers execute PRESENT ARMS. At the command EYES RIGHT, the Pathfinder Flag is dipped to a 45-degree angle. Never dip the National Flag.

Six steps after the club has cleared the reviewing stand, the command READY FRONT is given and head and eyes face front.

- Parade Lineup - Clubs will lineup within their county according to the order given on the lineup sheet. This information will be posted at the registration area on the day of the Fair.

The order within each club will be:

1. Club banner
2. Flag Bearers
3. Director and Pastor
4. Drill Instructor to the right of guidon bearers
5. Pathfinders-small clubs may march in columns of two or three abreast rather than four as shown
6. Staff follow Pathfinders
7. Float and other entries bring up the rear

Director's Inspection

At 8:45 am each director should inspect their club, on the parade assembly area, to be sure that all is ready for the parade to begin.

1. Are slides secure and scarves straightened?
2. Are Pathfinder sashes under the epaulet and buttoned? (or use safety pin)
3. Are flag bearers in proper position?
4. Do the club banner carriers know where to carry the banner so it will not drag? Do they know how to judge a distance of 50 feet and how to mark time when they get too close to the next float?
5. Do your Pathfinders know how to execute eyes, right?
6. Do flag bearers know how to execute eyes, right?
7. Is your float ready?
8. At the end of parade, Pathfinders are to go to assembly area, The US and Pathfinder Flag bearers are to take their flags behind their County Banner. (Staff to take Club Banner and other flags to booth)

Other Entries

Each club is encouraged to enter other parade entries such as:

1. Bicycles
2. Bands, drum, and bugle corps
3. Flags

Pathfinder Teens

Pathfinder teen leaders/counselors should go to the end of the parade after marching with their club to march with the Teen Coordinators.

Master Guides in Training

Master Guides in Training will march at the beginning of the parade with the Master Guide Coordinator and committee members.

Parking

Parking is available at La Sierra University, in Lot E, Lot M, and Lot O. Parking spaces cannot be reserved. Cars parked where NO PARKING signs are displayed will be towed at the owner's expense and is not the responsibility of the Southeastern California Conference or Youth Ministries Department.
